

Dear Prospective Sponsors, Vendors and Advertisers,

Utah NAHRO (National Association of Housing and Redevelopment Officials) invites you to become a sponsor for our Annual Conference. The 2017 event will be held April 19th - 21st at the Courtyard Marriott in St. George, Utah. This Conference is the premiere event in Utah for housing authorities, community development agencies and other affordable housing organizations.

Utah NAHRO is a non-profit organization that relies on corporate sponsorships. As always, we strive to make the conference as affordable as possible. Your support is vital to our ability to provide our members with the best training, at an affordable price, while maintaining a local location.

Please take a moment to review the attached sponsorship matrix and registration. Several types of participation are available, including advertising only, exhibit space and advertising, and advertising at events.

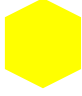

Thank you for considering our event and do not hesitate to call if you have any questions. The deadline for sponsor registration is March 1, 2017. For further information about the conference, please contact Heidi Miller at 435-586-8462 or email address is heidi@cedarcity.org or Janice Kimball at 801-284-4423 or email address is jjkimball@hacsl.org

Sincerely,

Janice Kimball
